ARTISTS BIOS:

Annie Rosenthal Parr Proprietress of RoCo Dance, received a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Dance from New York University's Tisch School of the Arts. She was a member of Della Davidson Dance and Margaret Jenkins Dance Company and founded RoCo Dance in 1993. Annie trains and gives guidance to new instructors by assembling a comprehensive structure for dance and fitness classes of all levels and genres. Annie founded MDRN YGA, a mat-less, hybrid flow class. She completed her 500 hour yoga training with Nubia Teixeira and is a certified RYT through Yoga Alliance. Annie also founded and directs BodyLanguage, RoCo's youth modern dance company. Her approach to teaching dance and yoga is accessible to a broad audience. Outside of Annie's career at RoCo, she presents work as an independent choreographer and performer. She has served as an adjunct professor of dance at University of California, Berkeley, Sonoma State and San Francisco State and guest teaches nationally and abroad.

Sadie Carhart began her lifelong passion of dance at the age of three. By 19, she was teaching Jazz, Hip Hop, Modern and Creative Movement to all ages 3-Adult. In 2002, Sadie became a principle company member with the 3rd Ave. Dance Company. During this time, she worked directly with and performed repertoire by KT Nelson, Brenda Way, Janice Garrett, Wade Madsen and Nancy Cranbourne. In 2008, Sadie was hired as a full time Dance Specialist for Tanner Dance at the University of Utah. This position included Arts and Education Assistant Director, working side by side with faculty to incorporate dance and movement into the academic curriculum, supporting over 4500 students in the Utah School Districts; Assistant Director to Tanner Dance studios; Choreographer and Instructor for Children's Dance Theatre, touring nationally and internationally ; Director of Summer camps; Teaching and mentoring Professional Development workshops for educators. Currently, Sadie is dancing with Printz Dance Project. She is also a Certified Yoga Practitioner and has been a Massage Therapist and Bodyworker for 15 years.

Bridget Bartholome has been a dance instructor for over ten years. She danced professionally with the New Orleans Dance Collective, 940 Dance Company, and was the dance critic for REVIEW Magazine in Kansas City. Bridget was trained at Houston Ballet and graduated with honors from The University of Arizona with a degree in Cultural Anthropology.

Sarah Lisette Chiesa Sarah Lisette Chiesa is an interdisciplinary artist/dancer/educator who works in Cultural Exchange and Site-Specific Performance in Museums, Galleries, and Theaters around the world. She is originally from New York and has lived and worked in the United States, Europe, Mexico, and Venezuela. She attended North Carolina School of the Arts in high school in Modern Dance, received a BFA from Purchase College, a Postgraduate in Choreography from the Salzburg Experimental Academy of Dance, and received her MFA in Dance from University of Washington. Sarah's work is heavily influenced by her collaboration as a full-time company member for many years with Shen Wei Dance Arts in New York and she continues to perform as guest artist with him. She is currently collaborating with Deborah Slater Dance Theater in the Bay Area and is performing in a visual art installation in Seattle in the end of January. "Art education, specifically dance, is about awakening people to their sense of humanity through a deep understanding of their body's movement."

Hollis Belger is a student at Redwood High School who has been dancing since she was three. Hollis started dancing at RoCo as a middle-schooler and now spends almost as much time at the studio as she does at home! Hollis is an avid hip-hopper who helped found New Constitution, RoCo's advanced company led by the dancers, themselves. She is also fully immersed in Ballet, Jazz, and Contemporary training, heading into her third year as a dancer in RoCo's Body Language company. Hollis has been training to teach at RoCo for the past year with Annie Parr, and she loves working with younger dancers. She often helps dancers prepare for school talent shows and also works as a dance motivator for parties. When she's not dancing, Hollis plays competitive soccer and runs a fundraiser for St. Jude Children's Research Hospital called Juggling for Jude. In her down time, she enjoys spending time with friends, her family, and her two dogs.

David Fox has been dancing at Roco continuously for 12 years. He is a member of Roco's youth companies, Body Language and New Constitution. He has attended summer intensives in modern dance at Interlochen Center for Performing Arts, and contemporary ballet at Joffrey San Francisco. He will attend the contemporary and jazz program at Joffrey New York City this summer. He is in his second year of teaching hip hop at Venetia Valley K-8 school in San Rafael in their after-school program.

ARTISTS BIOS:

Lucia Flexer-Marshall is a freelance contemporary dancer and teacher based in the Bay Area, and recent graduate from UC Santa Cruz with a BA in Dance and minor in Politics. Over the past few years she has studied floorwork from a range of movement disciplines, and loves to explore the creative possibilities in the disorientation that moving in and out of the floor creates. She is currently dancing with Fullstop Dance, and has performed work by Alyssa Mitchel, Tandy Beal, Cid Pearlman and Gregory Dawson. Growing up in the East Bay, she trained at the Oakland Ballet School and Shawl Anderson Dance Center, and has attended the summer programs Alonzo King Lines Ballet Summer Intensive, California State Summer School for the Arts, Camping, and b12.

Lilly Hunter (choreographer) is a high school student at Tam High. She has been dancing at RoCo since 2009, and has been taking classes in the Ballet, Contemporary, Jazz, Hip Hop and Breaking programs ever since. In 2019 she joined RoCo's modern company BodyLanguage. Lilly is really excited to be teaching at RoCo and spending time with younger students with a love for dance just like she had while she was growing up. When not at RoCo, Lilly loves hanging out with her friends, family and making art.

Kyle "Yurok" Mitchell has been dancing hip hop for 7 years. He has been all over the Bay Area dancing for crews such as The UNIT, Academy of Villains, and 1up Fam. Kyle is a director, choreographer, and founder of Auxiliary and Fallout, two up and coming dance teams that have placed in three major competitions this past year. Auxiliary Dance Team has also traveled to South Korea to share our knowledge and experiences in dance with the mayor of JeJu Island. Kyle is also an avid competitor in the freestyle community pushing both him and his crew through the competitive ranks with hard work and positivity. Kyle continues to push his abilities and pursue his goals in dance through both freestyle and choreography, and uses his experiences to teach and connect with his students.

Margaret Schimmel has been teaching dance at Roco since 2010! As a teen, she studied at Dance Theater Seven in their Pre Professional Program where she danced 30-40 hrs a week while she went to independent study high school, so she could dance full time. Margaret also trained at Marin Ballet in their advanced ballet division. She later got her Associates degree in dance and choreography. In addition to teaching dance, Margaret is an NASM certified personal trainer, and a certified Barre instructor. Margaret's life passion is teaching movement and self expression through fitness and dance to youth and adults. She is constantly striving to find new ways to continually educate herself about the body and share her knowledge with the community!

Madison Palmer grew up around Minnesota's Twin Cities where she received a diverse dance training at TU Dance, Out on a Limb Dance Theater Company and School, and St. Paul Conservatory for the Performing Artists. It wasn't until Madison attended the Alonzo King LINES Ballet Summer Program that she discovered a deep love and appreciation for contemporary ballet. She moved to the Bay Area to continue her study of dance through the LINES Ballet BFA Program at Dominican University, recently graduating from the program summa cum laude with a minor in arts management. In her time at Dominican, Madison worked closely with Alonzo King and performed original work by Amanda Miller, Robert Moses and Kin, Dawson Dance, Christian Burns, Carmen Rozestraten, and Kara Davies. She loves traveling and is proud to have interned with Juntos Collective and joined them on two international trips, teaching and performing for underserved communities in Guatemala and Mexico. She is currently working to become a certified GYROTONIC® trainer and excited to further immerse herself in the Bay Area dance scene as a teacher, performing artist, and avid arts supporter.

Becca Rozell was born in Juneau, AK where she began dancing and continued at Skidmore College where she graduated with honors in dance. Since college she has lived in Boston and NYC, teaching at studios including; Peridance in NYC and The Boston Conservatory and Jeannette Neill Dance studio in Boston. She has worked with companies such as Nicola Hawkins, Andrew Janetti, Vanessa Paige and continues to work with Boston based Weber Dance. She moved to the Bay Area in 2008 where she now teaches at Roco and is an artist with Performing Arts Workshop. She also presents her work in the Bay Area and dances with Dance Ceres.

ARTISTS BIOS:

Jasen Valdez iasen found his love for dance at the age of 13 and has been training ever since. He has deep passion for all forms of movement and is currently getting his bachelors at Sonoma State in Theater Arts with a dance concentration. He has been associated with several dance company's such as Soul Purpose, Press P.L.A.Y, the Unit and presently part of Auxiliary. Most of his training comes from an Urban Hip-Hop background and is still in a constant journey discovering new forms of movement from different genres such as Modern and Contemporary. His mission as a teacher is to not only teach the youth how to dance but also the values and lesson that follow the art. Jasen firmly believes in the mentality of stay hungry and stay humble which to pass on to future generations.

Ayana Yonesaka was born and raised in Sapporo, Japan and began modern dance at age seven. In 2009, she moved to San Francisco to pursue her career as a dancer. Since receiving her B.A in Dance (summa cum laude) from SFSU in 2013, she has been an active teacher, choreographer, and performer in the San Francisco dance community. While currently teaching dance at San Francisco Youth Ballet Academy, she has presented work at venues such as Dance Mission and ODC Theatre. Ayana has also performed with Bay Area companies Blind Tiger Society, First Voice Productions, Cali & Co, and Garrett and Moulton Productions.

Bianca Zogbi has been dancing for over eleven years and teaching for six years. She received her AA in dance from College of Marin and then went on to join numerous dance teams all over the bay area. She has danced with Funkanometry, Live San Francisco, Bachata Fever Academy, Inessence, and two placing competitive hip hop teams, Auxiliary and Fallout. Bianca is a teacher, choreographer, and also a freestyle battler. She travels and competes in Krump and open style battles. She continues to push herself and absorb as much dance culture and knowledge as she can so that she can pass it on to her students. She loves instilling confidence in her students and watching them achieve their goals through dance. Incorporating both femininity and power in her movements Bianca strives to teach the younger female generation that they can be both! No matter what style you learn from Bianca you will leave class feeling motivated and exhilarated!
